

DR. KERRY J. RIDGWAY

INSTITUTE FOR EQUINE THERAPEUTIC OPTIONS

Horses are inherently unpredictable. Working with them involves risk of injury to themselves, humans and property. This course demonstrates procedures that should only be attempted by persons who have solid knowledge and experience with horses.

The contents of this course, such as text, videos, graphics or images are for educational purposes only.

This course is not intended as a substitute for professional veterinary advice, diagnosis or treatment. Always seek the advice of your veterinarian with any question that you may have regarding the health of your horse. Never disregard professional advice, or delay in seeking it because of something that you have seen in this course.

This course is the description of Dr Kerry Ridgway's own veterinary techniques that he has developed over a lifetime.

Equine Therapeutic Options and its directors and consultants do not accept any liability for any error, omission or misrepresentation in relation to the information supplied in this course. Equine Therapeutic Options and its representatives are also not liable for any loss, damage, cost or expense, wether direct, indirect, consequential or otherwise incurred by any person or horse, as a consequence of studying this course.
